

Photosystem I

(View 2)

Photosystem I is a trimeric complex that forms a large disk. In cells, the complex floats in a membrane with the large flat faces exposed above and below the membrane.

